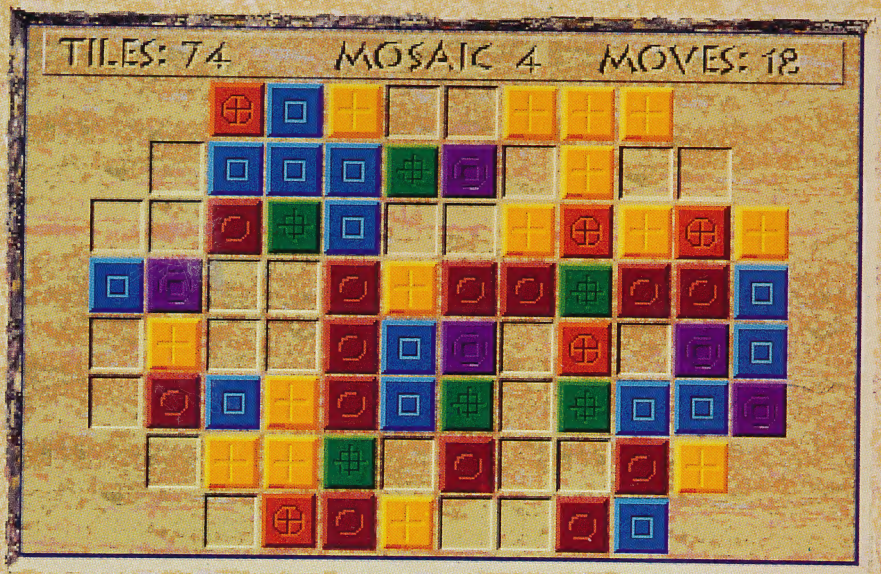
tes´se•ræ [Lat., a cube, a die.] 1. pl. n. small squares of colored stone or glass inlaid to form a mosaic. 2. n. a tantalizing color puzzle game for the Macintosh.



Clear the board by jumping one colorful patterned tile over another. Sounds easy? A bewitching brainteaser, Tesserae poses infinite variety in three levels of difficulty, on nine distinct mosaic boards. In color, your movement is based on Color Theory; in black and white, patterns guide your way. So pick a board and begin! But be warned: flipping tiles can be addictive.

Getting Started:

Fill out the Registration Card and return it to Inline Design. We use our database to inform our customers of upgrades and new games. We will even send you our quarterly newsletter. Inline Design does not sell or rent its mailing list.

Copy the Tesseræ application to your hard disk. While Tesseræ can be played from the floppy disk, for better performance we suggest you run the game only from your hard disk. Never play the game from the original disk!

Double click on the Tesseræ application. Notice that there is no copy protection. There is no quiz. You do not have to name all 50 states to begin.

You will find the instructions for playing Tesseræ in the game itself. You might want to go through this on-line manual before beginning. Access the instructions either by clicking the Instructions button on the title screen, or by selecting Instructions... from the Apple menu.

Tesseræ requires at least System version 6.02 to run properly. Nevertheless, we strongly urge you to consider running System version 6.05 or higher as there have been countless improvements to the System software. Tesserae is fully compatible with System 7.0.

If you encounter problems, you are probably running the DiskLight INIT from the Norton Utilities package. The only solution is to remove the DiskLight INIT from your System Folder and restart. We have notified Norton about the problem and they should be fixing it as you read this.

To move the Tesseræ window, simply place your cursor at the top of the window. The cursor will change to a hand. You can then drag the window anywhere you like. The Center Window command in the Option menu will return the Tesseræ window to its front and center location.

Support:

There is complete information about the operation of Tesseræ in the built-in help system. If you require assistance, Inline Design offers many ways to get help. You may reach our Technical Support staff using any of the following methods:

CompuServe:	75300,2014

Please, have your serial number (found on the original disk), System version, type of Macintosh and description of the problem handy before calling, or include all this information in any electronic correspondence. Also, if at all possible, please call when you are sitting in front of your Mac.

We check for mail on each of these services Monday through Friday and sometimes on weekends. Inline Design offers its own section on America Online where you can ask for help, get the latest information on Inline Design products, and compare your high scores to other player's. You can access this section through the Industry Connection, or by using the Keyword: INLINE.

ARMOUR-GEDDON

DOS

The Balkan War of 1997 devastated the earth...

Decades later, two conflicting factions survive: The hostile and combative surface dwellers, and the subterranean society of the Earth Defense Network (EDEN). As a warrior member of EDEN's High Command, it's your sworn duty to defend your civilization from the marauding surface dwellers and destroy their deadly laser beam cannon before it annihilates your people.

Armour-Geddon puts you in the front line! Plan the attack and leap into combat, battling the enemy from the cockpit of six different high-tech vehicles. Striking from the air in your stealth fighter, bomber or helicopter you eradicate the enemy's power grid.

Decimating enemy installations, you retrieve their advanced weapons systems in your fleet of surface attack vehicles. Assembling the captured technology, you develop the only weapon on earth powerful enough to crush the enemy's aggression: the Neutron bomb.

Armour-Geddon takes realism a step further with high speed computer graphics, heads-up cockpit displays, full soundboard support and the sophisticated head to head serial link option that permits two EDEN warriors to simultaneously coordinate their attack.

Any closer to the action and you'd need body armor!

Great Hub, Great Price

The TurboStar™ active hub is a smart LocalTalk hub at an even smarter price. It offers 16 ports that allow four users each (64 users total), with easy-to-read LED indicators for each port. TurboStar interfaces easily with existing twisted-pair networks, and includes both standard network management tools and Net Utilities by TechWorks.

TurboStar doesn't need a dedicated Mac, so you can manage a network from any Mac on the net. It automatically activates all ports on power-up and assigns them default names. If a defective device jams a port, TurboStar disengages it, then automatically re-enables the port when it's cleared. This means less time troubleshooting by network managers – and less network downtime. With internal storage for activity logs, a built-in power supply, and a cost-per-port of about $28, TurboStar is an outstanding value. 10"W x 12"H x 3½"D

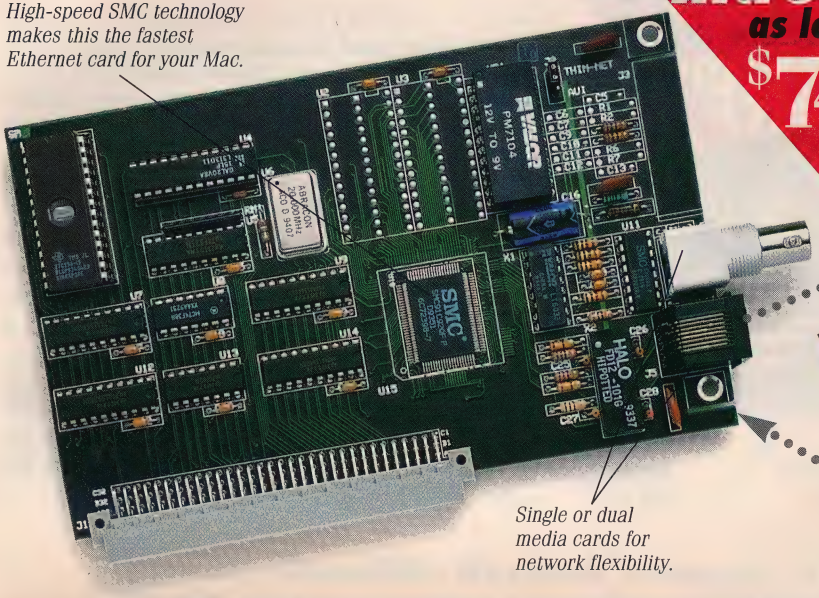
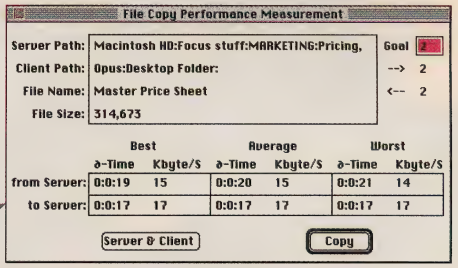
High-speed SMC technology makes this the fastest Ethernet card for your Mac.

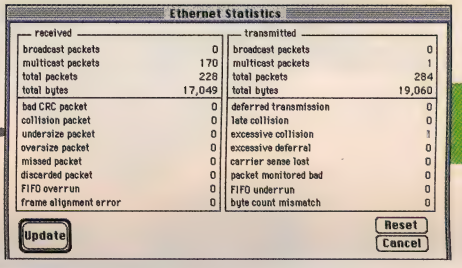


Single or dual media cards for network flexibility.



Free Performance Software

See how fast your EtherLAN cards can be! Test file transfers to and from a file server as many times as you want. Gives worst, best and average readings. A great diagnostic tool to tune your Mac or your network.



Ethernet Vital Signs At A Glance

The ability to gather SNMP (Simple Network Management Protocol) statistics comes with every new EtherLAN board. It gives you an up-to-the-second diagnostic picture of your Ethernet connection and other vital statistics.

Higher-Performance Ethernet

Breakthrough performance for your Ethernet Macs is finally here. Now you can get more out of the Ethernet bandwidth, and do it for less. What's the secret? We use fast drivers and the leading-edge Ethernet controller from SMC that dynamically allocates memory with an MMU (memory management unit) not found on any of our competitors' boards. No more waiting in line for packets. Tests show file transfer improvements of up to 50%. Newer Macs with fast hard drives will show the most improvement, but any Mac will benefit from this incredible technology.

SNMP On Board – Free!

Only FOCUS gives you full compatibility with Apple SNMP and your own mini SNMP console. More than a simple diagnostic tool, this is a networking power tool.

Performance™ Software! How fast is fast? Every board comes with a new stand-alone utility to test the speed of file transfers to any node on the network. You can check out your new EtherLAN card, or test your LocalTalk speeds. Works on any Mac and with any network configuration or protocol. A $39 value, free with every board!

Other great features? We have auto-sensing for 10BaseT or Thinnet connections – which you can switch on the fly. And only our boards will automatically give you a dialog box alert if you have a bad cabling connection. Our EtherLAN cards are fully compatible with TCP/IP, NetWare, and other Ethernet protocols, and of course work alongside any other Ethernet card.

All of this for only $74.99? Incredible! Get into the high-speed lane with the new EtherLAN!

The Price/Performance Edge For OCR

TextBridge™ software makes optical character recognition easy, accurate, and affordable, combining simple, one-button operation with superior speed and accuracy. Its Lexifier feature identifies word and numerical patterns, so it can distinguish between "O"s and zeros, ones and "l"s. Documents that contain mixed typefaces, graphics, or multiple columns are no problem for TextBridge – it retains formatting and recognizes mixed typefaces. Small Investment, Big Protection

Power problems can happen for many reasons – lightning strikes, line surges, and more. The Kensington PowerTree can protect thousands of dollars' worth of equipment from these unpredictable events. Each offers surge protection on six outlets, a master switch, and an LED indicator. The PowerTree 20 and 50 have EMI/RFI noise filtering to protect against surges and spikes, failure indicators, and buzzer alarms. The PowerTree 50 also has modem/fax protection and one continuously powered outlet for leaving a modem or answering machine powered on. All come with a two-year warranty and a $10,000 or $15,000 Equipment Protection Policy.

Don't Risk A Power Failure

Power problems cause over 20% of computer and hard disk damage, and 61% of memory damage. Protect your system with standby power from the Kensington PowerBacker® Plus. This compact, uninterruptible power supply provides continuous power during dips, brownouts, surges and complete blackouts, giving you the chance to perform an orderly, safe system shutdown. The front LED status panel keeps you informed of the power flow and UPS operation, and an audible alarm alerts you to any power interrupt. The 600 and 800 also offer modem/telephone protection. Choose your UPS rating – 300, 450, 600, or 800 – by adding your total configuration VA ratings. Your UPS rating should exceed your total requirement. For example, for a configuration requiring 250 VA total power, the PowerBacker Plus 300 provides approximately 8 minutes of power.
